“Bringing Hope and Help to America’s Gold Star Families”

The House That Love Built

The official title of the Vaughn Project is a program called “The House That Love Built.” With this program, Believe With Me seeks to serve the parents of a married fallen soldier who are left financially devastated after the overwhelming grief following the death of their son. Many parents of fallen soldiers carry a disproportionate amount of grief while without sufficient financial resources to continue to work, pay bills or function for the first few years after the death of their child who gave his life while serving in our nation’s armed services.

Believe With Me seeks to serve several necessary ends with The House That Love Built:

Restore a home to our family of the fallen.

Many times, their grief and subsequent substantial financial losses leave their homes in ultimate disrepair or worse, taken from them due to unpaid mortgages and/or taxes. Whether we repair and restore their current home or purchase them a new home, home ownership and honorable living conditions are the first priority in the project.

They should own a piece of the land their son died for.

For our Gold Star Families, owning a piece of the country their son died for is imperative. The ultimate heartbreak for many of our families after the death of their son, is being unable to hold on to their boy’s childhood home. The place where he was brought home from the hospital...the last place he slept before he left for that final deployment. When they lose this home, the last piece of their memories are many times stolen away as well. Believe With Me seeks to stop, repair, or restore that to them by any means possible.

Teach the community.

Many times, the community in which a Gold Star family lives is completely unaware of the fact that a hero was raised in their midst. Dozens, hundreds, or as in the case of the Schumann family (2016 project), thousands of people drive by their home not knowing that a family that continues to pay for the freedom of those passing by. When we bring “The House That Love Built” into the community, the family gets the long overdue honor and gratitude befitting their sacrifice, and the community becomes aware of the Gold Star family.

Teach the youth.

Last, but certainly not least, The House That Love Built is a great outreach to the youth of our nation. Most young adults have no idea that over 1.5 million patriots have paid for their opportunity to go to school, go to church, play football, or attend a higher educational facility. They mistakenly think that their own abilities or prowess have earned them the right to do so, when in fact those freedoms were paid for over the bloody battlefields of the last two and a half centuries. When an adolescent or young adult leaves one of our projects, they leave with a profound sense of duty to live a life worthy of the sacrifice.

An American Gold Star Christmas

An American Gold Star Christmas is a grateful nation's opportunity to give back to the children who have lost a parent serving in our nation's military. We have been featured on The Today Show, Fox and Friends, and multiple local news stations showcasing our heart for the orphans of war.

Americans are eager to give back to these children at Christmas. Gold Star families are sought by us through various other charities, foundations, and Gold Star family Department of Defense initiatives as well as survivor outreach services and various veteran's service organizations and offered the opportunity to register on our website. They share family photos, their story, and the names and ages of their children with a short Christmas wishlist. Around Thanksgiving, we open up sponsorship opportunities for thankful patriots to help us bless the socks off our Gold Star kids. We respectfully ask that families register for gifts right around a $50 price point, but most sponsors love to spoil these children. Giant boxes of love and gratitude grace the doorsteps of our Gold Star families delivered two-day express by FedEx, our official "Gold Star Sleigh."

Again, our first focus is to serve and love on our families who have suffered such great loss on our behalf. But it is not our only focus. As always, there is an educational component that includes teaching citizens: families, high school and university students, youth groups, sports teams and businesses that bring their employees all learn about the high cost of freedom and opportunity afforded them as they sort, wrap, package and prep the gifts for our Gold Star kids. Our volunteers come to "know" hundreds of these families as they read and reread their stories throughout the process of prepping gifts for shipping. Many times, multiple local Gold Star families come and volunteer to help during An American Gold Star Christmas, making the experience for our volunteers exponentially more powerful. This too, brings hope and healing for our Gold Star families as they can literally experience the gratitude from our volunteers firsthand.

Gold Star Mother's Day Dinner

This program was originally intended just to honor our Gold Star Mothers, but the influence of their strength, dignity and integrity left an indelible mark on the soul of every volunteer, attendee and donor. We were beyond thrilled at the resulting joy, healing, and overflowing happiness of our Gold Star Mothers and the life change they brought into those that served or attended the event. All were inspired to "Live a Life Worthy of the Sacrifice." 10 local Gold Star Mothers were in attendance, 50 civilians in attendance.

Help Houston Hurricane Harvey Relief

A team of volunteers (including a dozen students) travelled to Houston raising funds along the way to eventually bring help to more than 400 Houstonians through serving meals and giving bins of full of more than $200 of immediate needs and necessities. Believe With Me partnered with a local church and business ensuring that those in the most dire situations and parts of the community were well cared for.
